

Project Development Process

Overview of Design Process: APS works as project developer through its BLPC process and is responsible for incorporating PFRC input into the final design. The project is presented to the PFRC at three points in the process: Planning (Framework), Conceptual Options, Final Design

Note: For County projects BLPC above would be replaced with a Task Force or Project Team and School Board Actions eliminated.